“ It saddens me to have had so little time with her. She'd only been my mother-in-law for six months. I remember the day her and I went shopping for an outfit to wear to the wedding. She was so excited to just be hanging out; ya know, girl time, especially since she didn't feel well a lot of the time. We went to dozens of stores, had lunch, and found an outfit that was very Paula. The weather was perfect and it was just such a nice day. Love and miss you PJ.
