“ My deepest sympathies are with the entire Frank family. I just learned of Rita's passing. She was a table partner at my mother's table (Millie Frey) at the Highland Home while Mom was there. Rita was always a delight to talk to. Rita loved to sit in the sun in front of the building. Rita died on my daughter's 40th birthday so I will remember her passing every year. Beverly (Frey) Bryant

“ Bryan and I enjoyed camping with the Frank families on many occasions and Rita always enjoyed a good ole campfire hotdog and sitting around the bonfire afterwards eating different types of smores! And my daughter... Emily Gehrig Giedeman used to take care of her at Hitz when she worked there! We will miss you but hold to to the fun memories... and the factbuour birthday was on our Anniversary ☹️😊☹️

“ Rita was such a very special friend and had a heart of gold. She would help anyone and everyone she could. She would tell me countless times of a play that she and my brother were in together at school while sitting around the table here at The Highland Home. She would get so excited when she won bingo and not so much if she didn't. Lol. She will be missed for sure. Rest in Heaven my dear friend.
