“ The last time I visited Bob & Carol, I found out Bob and I both grew up in Brighton Park but never knew each other then. We looked at his photo album and it was like walking back through those early fun years of life. I'm glad Carol had him in her life as her rock and will always keep Bob in my prayers.

“ My heartfelt sympathy to Bob's family for their loss. I grew up with the Cabay boys on 38th Place in Brighton Park. I'll never forget the days just sitting on their front porch, sharing stories and having a great time. Bob was like another older brother, always keeping us younger fellas in line. Great memories!! He is in God's hands for eternity and may he rest in peace. May God keep the entire Cabay Family in His graces, especially Ken, Paul and Donald.
