

Robert A. Fischer

May 13, 1941 - November 28, 2022

Robert A. "Bob" Fischer, age 81 of Highland, IL, died Monday, November 28, 2022, at Saint John's Hospital in Springfield, IL.

He was born on Tuesday, May 13, 1941, in Breese, IL, the son of Joseph and Elizabeth (nee Tebbe) Fischer.

On Saturday, August 28, 1965, he married Donna J. Fischer, nee Riffel, at St. Paul Catholic Church, Highland, IL, who passed away on Tuesday, January 10, 1995.

He was a member of Saint Paul Catholic Church, Knights of Columbus, Loyal Order of the Moose and Plumbers Local #360.

Bob was born at Breese, IL, grew up in St. Rose and graduated from the first class at Mater Dei Catholic High School, Breese, IL. He served with the US Army. He worked for Wick's Organ Factory and Granite City Steel. In the late 1980's, he and Bob Frey purchased Essenpreis Plumbing, Highland, IL, operating the business as plumbers and retired in 2003. He was an active member of the Highland Country Club. He enjoyed playing golf, bowling three nights a week, playing horseshoes and hunting deer, rabbits, geese and squirrels. He shot a hole in one and won the senior championship in 2016 and 2020 at the Highland Country Club; bowled three 300 games (he is in the Bowling Hall of Fame) and made altar crosses, furniture and many other woodworking projects. He and his wife were in a Friday night card club. He attended his grandchildren's sporting events. He was an outdoorsman, spending time at his Millersburg club house, many days cutting down trees and clearing trails.

Our family were neighbors to the Fischer family for years about 2 miles north of St, Rose when most of them attended St. Rose Grade school, often on the respective farms as we grew up, To all of you beautiful children who grew up in a family of love. You are being loved and in my prayers over here in O'Fallon/Lake Saint Louis, MO. My travels back to Clinton county are extremely limited to my own kin who still live in that area.

This obit brings back such wonderful memories. Ferd Potthast
