

Robert A. Heinz

May 31, 1933 - February 23, 2020

Robert A. Heinz, age 86 of Highland, IL, died Sunday, February 23, 2020, at Alhambra Care Center in Alhambra, IL.

He was born on May 31, 1933, in Livingston, IL, the son of Paul and Margaret (nee Slaviero) Heinz.

On November 05, 1960, he married Betty L. Oberdalhoff, who he referred to as his "Boopie", at Alhambra, IL. She survives in Highland, IL.

He was a former Lions Club Member and member of #1535 Carpenters Union.

Bob was born in Livingston, IL and graduated Livingston High School in 1952. He joined the US Army during the Korean War and when he got home he attended Ranken Trade School, studying carpentry. He worked as a carpenter most of his life for many contractors in the area. He ran his own business of Robert Heinz Builder for 17 years doing mostly residential construction. Bob enjoyed oil painting, taking "Boopie", his loving wife of 59 years, to dances and Polka dancing, trips to Tunica and the Ozarks, fishing, and working on projects in his shop. Family time was very important to him.

“ Bob was a good neighbor. He would always stop and talk when he was out for a walk. Years ago, he let us borrow his "garage sale" tables. He would load them up, bring them to our house, help unload and set them up.... we always appreciated his help. He was a good man and a good friend.
