“ *Bob was my brother in law over 45 yrs ago He was the kindest sweetest most generous man i knew He loved my son Robert Keith , he and my sister in law Pat were the ones who took me to Cardinal Glennon Children 's Hospital in St.
Louis to meet my son
They opened their home to us when he came home
I never forgot his kindnesses he showed us I am so sorry to hear of Bob's passing I will miss that sweet man
I remember when His brother Jim was killed yrs ago such a tragedy
I always thought the world of Bob And forever grateful for all he did Love ya Bob

“ Kaye, I was so shocked to read about Bob's death. Our childhood escapades on Laurel Street are still so vivid in my memories. We had a good neighborhood; we all grew up to be successful, independent adults; and I am proud to have been a part of Bob's life. My condolences to all of you. Barbara Christoe McElroy

Bobs Memorial

The kindest man I have ever met. It is an honor to be part of this family. I miss the everyday things you use to do, telling stories of riding to work on your bike to narrowly escape crazy Florida drivers. Working on your computer to get Skype up and running so you could talk to Zdena.

Till the next time we meet

Michael G. Wise (husband of Diana K. and sister of Robert)
