“ Tony and Alex and all family and friends my deepest condolences on your loss. I remember visiting Roger when he lived in Las Vegas and I lived in Coachella Ca. They would invite me to visit on weekends to get away from it all. We had a lot of fun and laughs, played games late, and more laughs when we woke the next day. They were always an oasis to me in the rough times and rush rush times I had living in California. We had some good times! And that's what I will always keep with me. So long big guy!
