“ My mother, Ann Everett, and Rosie were aunt and niece and also great friends. I remember visiting Rose when I was a little girl with my mother. They had many good times together with the Coffee Klotches that the Neier family often had. I remember the laughter most of all.

“ Rose was always welcoming to me when Carol invited me to a sleep over. She often drove the two of us to school in bad weather and made THE best grilled cheese sandwiches ever! Great memories from the 60's. Sending hugs and wishes of comfort for the family knowing so many of us care and are thinking of you.
