“ One time we had a party at Rose Kerry's house. I was 7 years old. She had her pants in her head and dared the carp out of use. We all ran throw the woods from her. She was fun, sweet, and a very loving lady.

“ Grandma Rosemary is dearily missed and loved by many! She was a phenomenal gardener and had some of the most beautiful flower beds! I remember spending many afternoons there with her granddaughter Caroyln. If we just stopped in to check on her or to drop something off, grandma was always glad to see us. Never forget the time grandma gave us trash bags and we were out there trying to sled. She thought it was the funniest thing!! Grandma Rosemary was a God fearing women and will spend the rest of her days in no pain and dancing in the streets of gold!!
