

Rosetta Clayton

December 7, 1941 - April 12, 2006

Rosetta (Johnson) Clayton, age 64, of Highland, IL., died Wednesday, April 12, 2006, at her residence in Highland, IL.

She was born December 7, 1941, in Grove, OK., the daughter of Andrew and Grace (Graham) Johnson.

On September 9, 1961 in Miami, OK, she married Larry G. Clayton , who survives.

Rosetta was born in Grove, OK and went to school in Miami, OK and graduated in 1959. After her marriage she raised her family and was mostly a homemaker, although she did work at a daycare and she tied fishing jigs in her home. When she was younger she loved to square dance, fish, and camp. After her grandchildren were born her #1 goal was to see that they were spoiled, and she did a very good job of that. While belonging to the \"Lioness\" Organizsation, she and another lady played Mr. & Mrs. Santa Claus and made a lot of children very happy during Christmas. Her favorite singers were Toby Keith and Garth Brooks. She liked to watch old movies, and her fondest memory was of a cruise she had taken 2 years ago in the Caribbean. She was also an avid bingo player.

She was also a member of Sorority Sister of E.S.A. -Gamma Phi Chapter; Former Lioness of Lion's Club in Inola, OK.

Survivors include Husband-Larry G. Clayton of Highland, Ill., Son-Jerry O. Clayton of Inola, Okla., Son-Lee A. Clayton of Inola, Okla., Grandchild-Kyle A. Clayton (age 17) of Berryhill, Okla., Grandchild-Kristi L. Clayton (age 14) of Berryhill, Okla.

She was preceded in death by Father-Andrew Johnson, Mother-Grace Johnson, nee Graham, Brother-Earnest Johnson (died @ age 4), Brother-Charles Johnson, Brother-Willis Johnson
