

Salvatore Lammi

September 28, 1928 - August 29, 2005

Salvatore Lammi, age 76, of Hamel, Ill., born September 28, 1928, in Cranford, NJ, died Monday, August 29, 2005, at Anderson Hospital in Maryville, Ill.

Mr. Salvatore grew up in Garwood, NJ. He was a US Navy veteran. He worked at Petro Plastic Factory, Garwood, NJ; then later worked at A&P Bakery, Newark, NJ, retiring as a supervisor. He was active in his children's sporting events and enjoyed horse back riding.

He was a former Captain with the Garwood, NJ, First Aid Squad.

He was preceded in death by his parents Daniel and Lillian (nee Recca) Lammi; brothers, Anthony Lammi as an infant, Anthony Lammi and Daniel Lammi; and a sister Rose Caimano.

Surviving are a wife Mabel A. "Mae" (nee Godfrey) Lammi, whom he married January 27, 1951, at St. Anne's Catholic Church, Garwood, NJ; a son Daniel S. (Monica) Lammi of Phillipsburg, NJ; a daughter Maria D. (Joshua) Mangum of Texico, NM; a granddaughter Caitlyn M. Westfall of Alhambra, IL; and a sister Mary D. Cito of Toms River, NJ.