“ Shirley was a faithful and devoted member of Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration at St. Joseph Hospital chapel for many years. She attended her hour faithfully and also was a substitute to go when someone else couldn't. She would go if called whenever she could. She only stopped going when her health became bad and she could no longer drive.

Her prayers were a blessing to us all.

“ Shirley was a good friend to my mother at the apartments. She was larger than life with a hearty laugh and an outgoing personality! A caring volunteer at the hospital and a good worker and member at the VFW. She will be missed. Sherry Fletcher
