“ I had the pleasure of working with Sung In at Community Link. I also had the pleasure of taking care of him when his parents needed a break, and I would take Sung In to my house he would eat supper with my family and then play games, he would make us laugh and he would laugh enjoyed going with me as much as I enjoyed him going with me. Sung In will Always have a special place in my heart. God bless your family and prayers to you all. Sincerely Lisa Gurley
