“ Girls, I am sorry for your loss. Your mother was always bubbly and I never saw her without a smile. She was a delight to know and I'm sure God has carried her all the way to heaven. Be at Peace....your mother is!

“ I really don't know where to start...Growing up you were always like a second mom to me. You are one of the best moms and grandmas I have ever seen. You always wanted to make all the people around you laugh. Your smile was contagious. You were also one heck of a cook. I must say you made the best fried chicken and mashed potatoes and gravy that I have ever eaten! Thanks for always welcoming me in your home with open arms and treating me like family! You will be missed. Love ya, Dee

“ Stephanie, Amanda, and Erin-
I am terribly sorry for your loss. I can't begin to imagine what you girls are going through. I have many memories of your sweet Mom! I remember playing at your house next to the Hempen's as well as the other house (down the road I think). I can recall being at your house while Theresa was studying, us girls running around crazy upstairs... little did i know at the time that she was studying for her Bachelor's Degree!!! What an amazing accomplishment! I am sure you are soooo proud of her! Oh, and all the softball games during the grade school summers. Her cheering us on and transporting us here and there. Everyone loved your energetic mom! She is smiling down on you and all of her grandchildren now, so proud of all of you! Please know that I and my family are thinking of her and all of you and will forever cherish the memories!

“ Terrie and I worked together at Murray off and on thru the years until assignments only let us run into each other every once in a while.

Kindred spirits were we, both having a good sense of humor {sometimes a warped one}, never a dull moment and it was contagious to employees and residents alike, Working night shift, she put a rubber snake in the bed linens so I'd find it, another time she put the CPR doll in one of my closets. Does that sound like her? I know you are smiling too. Terrie put more smiles on faces than Goodyear has made tires. I will miss you my friend.

“ My daughter is Toni, wife of Ted Korte. The first time I met Theresa she asked if I liked Ted; I told her that 'so far I haven't found anything I don't like but not to worry - I'm still looking'. We looked at each other and busted out laughing. We laughed every time we saw each other. Wonderful woman.

“ Your smile was warm and contagious, your humor surpassed many, you couldn't just be there and save your strength , you still had to humor me laughing at your witty personality. you had so much love in your heart for your family, the memories you have left will last many a lifetime, and yes the Voss family will never forget you, because you were you. Theresa, the twinkle in your eyes was just like a new shining star, and you just kept on fighting, you must gotten a look at what was ahead because the sparkle was beautiful, Like you said, its a win win situation for me, if I lick this, then I win, and if I don't, I also win, and see many that have passed before me... your pain and suffering are now gone, and go rest in Jesus arms. He got a real special angel when he took you...
