“ My memories of my Uncle Tom go back almost sixty years when I was a little girl. We would drive back to Highland from Washington DC to visit Grandma Werner. Tom would always take us swimming or bowling or go-kart riding and then to the Dairy Queen. He was handsome and funny and always drove cool cars and told great jokes, most of which I didn't then get! He was a wonderful brother to my mother and a great uncle to me and my brothers. We will always remember him and treasure the memories we have of him.
