

Una Mae F. Meyer

May 24, 1934 - October 1, 2021

Una Mae F. Meyer, age 87 of Highland, IL, died Friday, October 01, 2021, at Highland Home in Highland, IL.

She was born on Thursday, May 24, 1934, in Highland, IL, the daughter of Clarence and Clara (nee Koehler) Henss.

On Saturday, August 11, 1951, she married Clinton W. Meyer at St. Jacob, IL, who passed away on Tuesday, November 27, 2012.

She was a former member of Friedens United Church of Christ, Troy, IL.

Una Mae was born in Highland, IL. She grew up southeast of St. Jacob on the family farm and attended Faires Country School and St. Jacob High School. On Aug 11, 1951 she married Clinton Meyer and had six children, 18 grandchildren and 30 great-grandchildren. Una Mae worked at Brown Shoe Company in Trenton, IL, from 1953 to 1954. She also worked as a meat wrapper at Edwardsville Frozen Foods for 17 years. Una Mae retired from Triad School District in 1999 with 17 years of working as a cafeteria cook and custodian in the St. Jacob Grade School and custodian for Triad HS. In retirement she enjoyed restoring antique furniture, caning chairs, embroidery, crocheting and donating "throws" to the Hoyleton Children's Home. She loved visiting family and taking care of her home and yard. She was known as a

“does it all” kind of person. She donated over 12 gallons of blood to the American Red Cross. She moved to the Highland Home in 2017 where she was the "House Seamstress" doing repairs and alterations for the residents

“ She was my second mother and the best grandma I could have asked for. She taught me to bake, crochet and sew. She taught me about our heritage, shared so many memories she had, had the best strawberries and ice-cream. She showed me how to can peaches, how to work a garden and taught me how to mow grass at the age of 8. She loved unconditionally. I will miss her so very much.
