“ Aunt Verna was a beautiful woman who made beautiful cookies. Not only were her cookies delicious but each one was perfectly shaped and decorated. A lot of love went into those cookies!! A Renken Christmas party would not be complete without a big tray of aunt Verna’s cookies. Lucky for us she shared her recipes and techniques with Joann and Julie. Aunt Verna truly lived a life well loved. 💕💕💕🍪

“ She was one of the most hard-working women I ever knew. I remember staying at their farm as a child. She was, of course, my Aunt Vernie. I remember gathering eggs in the mornings and all the different animals they had and how she would walk me around and show me.

When my daughter, Nicole, was born, she was one of the first people to come to see her and bring her a beautiful pink dress. I don't think that she ever missed a chance to bring something new to her grand-niece.

There are just so many memories in between and beyond those I mention.

I know she has finally found peace and can rest now.

Hers was a life well and truly lived.
