

Victoria M. Dunn

August 10, 1927 - May 18, 2015

Victoria M. "Vicki" Dunn, age 87 of Highland, IL, died Monday, May 18, 2015, at Saint Joseph's Hospital in Highland, IL.

She was born on Wednesday, August 10, 1927, in St. Louis, MO, the daughter of James and Catherine (nee Green) Vangelos.

On Saturday, June 07, 1947, she married Charles J. Dunn who passed away on March 9, 1998.

She was a member of Saint Paul Catholic Church, Highland, IL; former member of the Highland Country Club; Ladies Auxiliary - VFW Post 5694, Highland, IL.

Vicky was born in St. Louis, Missouri, reared in the Maplewood neighborhood and attended Soldan High School. Following her graduation she had worked for Stix, Baer & Fuller in St. Louis, before and after her marriage. She quit working to rear her two children. After they were grown she worked for Highland Community Schools in food service. She worked for the food service until her retirement, November 12, 1991. Vicky was an avid golfer, spending many hours on the course with her husband, Chuck. The Dunn's had a backyard pool and many, many hours were spent at the pool. In later years, she enjoyed going out to eat with friends and driving to Bobbies Frozen

Custard. In the summer of 2004 she moved to the Faith Countryside Homes - Apartments where she was always thankful for all of her friends. Many enjoyable hours were spent with friends during holidays and watching "Dancing With the Stars" on television.

Survivors include:

Brother - Allen J. (Mary) Vangelos, Laguna Niguel, CA

Many - Nieces and Nephews

“ I met Vicky after I became a friend with her daughter Kathy. Vicky and Chuck were some of the nicest people I had ever met. So much fun and full of life. I always felt so bad for her for having lost her children and her husband but she was always so upbeat whenever I would see her somewhere. My sympathy to her family and to Janet and Sharon.
