

Vincent C. Horstmann

August 24, 2010

Vincent Clarence Horstmann, 85 of Highland, Illinois died on Tuesday, August 24, 2010, at his residence in Highland, Illinois.

He was born Friday, August 21, 1925 in Saint Rose, Illinois, the son of the late Ben Horstmann and the late Clara (Middeke) Horstmann. He was the husband of Marie A. Horstmann nee Luitjohan.

Mr. Horstmann was born in St. Rose; attended St. Rose School; after his schooling he worked on a dairy farm and helped his dad with carpentry work. In 1946 he became an independant carpenter and also sold septic tanks and lightening rods. In mid 1950\'s Gene Schwend and Vince started Highland Ready Mix and operated it until 1975. He worked in residential construction as Horstmann Construction Company. In 1985 started with Korte Construction as a Superintant of construction until retiring in 1990. He was a Charter Member and President of Highland Savings and Loan in 1973. He enjoyed fishing, gardening, woodworking, playing cards and sharpening saws. He loved spending time with his Grandchildren.

He was a member of St. Paul Catholic Church in Highland.

Catholic Knights and Ladies of Illinois \"/>Board of Directors for many Years\"; Holy Name Society; Carpenters Local #1535 (former Treasurer)

Surviving are sons, C. Dale (Sally) Horstmann of Collinsville, IL, Gary J. (Donna) Horstmann of Highland, IL, Wayne A. (Cheri) Horstmann of Harrisburg, IL and Curt G. (Tamie) Horstmann of Highland, IL, daughter, Charlotte A. (Gary) Isaak of Highland, IL, sisters, Rose Schumacher of Aviston, IL, Bernice Poettker of Aviston, IL, Vera Netemeyer of Aviston, IL and Viola Wilson of Saint Clair, MO; 18 grand children; 20 great grand children.

He was predeceased by son, Charles Horstmann, brothers, John Horstmann, Edwin Horstmann and Eugene Horstmann, sister, Mary Buehne.