“ I met Walter on my facebook page about dragons. He sure did love his dragons! We quickly became friends and had many talks about love, life, and being positive despite struggling. Despite everything life threw at him, he lived with kindness and sweetness of spirit. He will be missed. Sincerest sympathy to his family. I hope you gain comfort in knowing he had a lasting impact on the people he came in contact with.

Our hearts go out to the Keller Family. He was a special friend to both myself and Shay. We had met Wally on Facebook as one of our fans to a Dragon page. He loved his dragons. We had become fast friends and had enjoyed many personal talks about Dragons, relationships and life. He had such a gentle soul. He will be missed. He is at peace now. Our deepest condolences Loreto and Shay
