“ My husband Michael and I met Warren in Fairfield Bay, AR, where we retired. Warren was one of the kindest and funniest men I have ever known. Being an avid sports fan and politico, we spent many times sharing a beer and talking sports and politics. I will truly miss you. Hugs and kisses to Kathy, and please remember all your friends in the Bay have you and your family in our prayers.

“ I worked with Warren at T. J. Raney & Sons in Little Rock back in the 80's. He was such a gentle, giant of a man and ALWAYS so kind. I remember him and Morris Little being the best of friends, enjoying a cool one at The Town Pump. Prayers for his family...
