“ Though I just learned of Wayne’s passing (and I moved to Montana over 45 years ago), I still remember his smile and caring nature for others. The times shared with him and his family in Alhambra when I was a teenager are ones not to be forgotten. May your memories carry you all through this time.

“ Stille Family, I am sad to hear about Wayne. He led a very active life and was devoted to his family. Always attending sports activities of his family. I will always remember him coming to softball practice or a game and getting the bag of bats and balls out of his trunk. He was a great husband, father, grandfather and friend. He will be missed by all. God Bless you all. Mike Otto

“ It is with heavy heart that I have to say good bye to my awesome friend and my only grandpa Wayne Stillie. Thank you for keeping up with me for all these years and thank you for getting mad at me when we played the game sequence against each other when I block you for taking your spot to win the game. You were the best grandpa anyone could have asked for. Rest In Peace my friend and I'll see you up there soon. ❤️ Megan Pfingsten

“ WOW, where does one start! This man was truly a man's man and a gentleman. He's the dad of my best friend and the dad to many. He kept his family close. That is what I remember most about him. He would have his kids and grandkids over to his house playing cards and dominoes till the wee hours of the morning. Seems like they were always doing something as a family. He was kind and smiled a lot. We all will miss you Wayne Stille! Thank you for being a real example of what a dad should be!!
