Very sorry to hear of your loss. Bill was truly one of the nicest people I've ever met. I am privileged to be able to call him my friend. I will never forget our trip to the Vegas race. We had a great time, and he managed to keep me out of trouble. My thoughts and prayers are with you all.

“ *Al and Kathy,
I am deeply sorry to hear of your dad's passing. 93 is a big number, and in his later years his health diminished his ability to care for himself and his love of life.
Your dad was a true gentleman and friend to so many Highland residents.
Al, I will never forget you taking the time to come to Highland for Dave's funeral. What a true friend; I guess a lot of your dad made you who you are. Take care during this special time.
Fondly,*
